Cathedral Choir CD released

The Cathedral Choir's world premiere recording of Mass of the Eternal Flame by acclaimed Latvian composer Ēriks Ešēvalds has been released on the Acis label and is now available at the Cathedral Bookstore.

Performed by the Cathedral Choir, brass and organist, Daryl Robinson, this mass was commissioned to mark Robert Simpson's 25th anniversary as Canon for Music. Reflecting on this commission Ešēvalds says, "It is inspiring for me to know that in Houston, Texas there is a choir with a true passion for expressing the Good News through music. My sincere gratitude to them for encouraging me to write my first Mass!"

In addition to the Mass, this CD offers a rich sampling of a cappella and accompanied works by Ešēvalds sung by the Cathedral Choir and the Cathedral's Treble Choir, directed by Marianna Parnas-Simpson, and two profoundly beautiful pieces by the late Canadian composer, Rachel Laurin, one for choir and one for solo organ.

This recording is dedicated to the People and Clergy of Christ Church Cathedral in gratitude for their steadfast support and appreciation, and with special thanks to the Leslie and Shannon Sasser Family Fund, the Lynn Murray Educational Trust, and Carolyn and Paul Landen for their significant gifts to the Cathedral Music Ministry that made this album possible.

Purchase a copy of the CD in the Cathedral Bookstore! It is also streaming on Apple Music, Spotify, and other digital platforms. Learn more about this album and its release by visiting www.christchurchcathedral.org/eternalflame

New Cathedral organist Valentina Huang

I am extremely pleased to announce the appointment of Valentina Huang as Cathedral Organist. Valentina is a remarkably talented musician with a warm and enthusiastic personality. She will be an enormous addition to the Cathedral Music Ministry and the entire Parish. Commenting on her appointment Valentina says, "I am grateful for the opportunity of serving here. I also look forward to meeting everyone and bringing music and joy to the Cathedral."

Born in China, Valentina came to the United States in 2016 to attend Wesleyan College in Macon, Georgia. She then earned a degree in piano at Peabody Institute at Johns Hopkins and a Master's in Organ Performance at Indiana University. While in Bloomington she met and married Tanner Ellis, a graduate of the IU law school. Valentina and Tanner came to Houston in order for her to enter the

New opportunities for Weekday Worship

This Fall we are excited to add Noonday Prayer to our regular Daily Office services!

The Daily Office is a set of daily prayers to mark the times of day, an ancient tradition, and is at the heart of Anglican spirituality. It is the proper form of daily public worship in the church. The Book of Common Prayer includes many prayer forms as part of the Daily Office—Morning Prayer, Evening Prayer, Noonday Prayer, Order of Worship for the Evening, and Compline. With the addition of an in-person Noonday prayer service to our already established Morning and Evening prayer services offered on Zoom, there will now be three daily opportunities to worship and pray together throughout the week.

doctoral program in organ at The Shepherd School of Music where she is about to start her second year as a student of Professor Ken Cowan.

Valentina is already making a name for herself as a concert organist with first place wins at the prestigious Fort Wayne competition in Indiana, and the Arthur Poister Competition at Syracuse University where she also won the Audience Prize. In a small world moment, former Cathedral Organist Monica Czausz Berney was a judge at that competition. Valentina comes to us after serving as Assistant Organist at Palmer Memorial Episcopal Church.

I very much look forward to working with Valentina, and to the “music and joy” she will bring to the Cathedral. Please help me welcome her on September 1.

Tattoos on the Heart: An Invitation to Belovedness

6:30–8 P.M., MONDAYS, MCGEHEE CONFERENCE ROOM, OCT. 7–NOV. 25

Join Dean Katz to explore our identity as God’s beloved and what that means for our lives. The primary text guiding the series will be Tattoos on the Heart: The Power of Boundless Compassion by Father Gregory Boyle, SJ. Tattoos on the Heart is the first of Father Boyle’s books that reflects on his nearly 40 years of ministry to gang members in Los Angeles. Each session will include discussion of Father Boyle’s reflections paired with a study of scriptural passages referenced in the book. This series is designed to be a space to turn to for tenderness, compassion and laughter to be cultivated as gifts to be passed along to our families, workplaces and neighborhoods. Registration is required.

Being With

6:30–8 P.M., MONDAYS, ZOOM, SEPT. 23–DEC. 2

Are you curious about Christianity? Do you want to go deeper in your faith? Are you looking for something more than a lecture or a study? If you answer yes to any of these, consider joining Being With, a new course at Christ Church developed by St Martin in the Field, Trafalgar Square. Over 10 sessions Being With explores Christian faith by wondering, sharing stories, and being together, guided by the conviction that our normal, everyday experiences of truth, beauty, and goodness help us encounter God. Being With is led by Jim Cowan, Elaine McClurkan, and Canon Bradley Varnell. Space is limited, so registration is required. To register, visit www.christchurchcathedral.org/being-with

Building a Faith that Endures

6–7 P.M., SUNDAYS, SANDERS HALL, SEPT. 29–OCT. 13

How do we build a faith that can endure all that life will throw at us? Talk to anyone about the details of their lives, and you will realize everybody struggles and has overwhelming seasons. No one exists free from pain, grief, anxiety, and challenges. If you are walking alongside someone who is struggling in a hard place, you are invited to join this space. If you have ever felt unsure of how to let the “peace of Christ rule in your heart” then this three-week series may be for you. For three Sundays, following The Well, come to Sanders Hall and together we’ll work to build a faith that endures.

Welcome to Worship

3:30–4:30 P.M., SUNDAYS, JEFFERS CONF. ROOM (HYBRID), OCT. 6–NOV. 24

The Episcopal Church has a rich history of worship which employs, among other things, sacred space, ceremonial gestures, music, word, and sacrament to create a time of worship that is set apart from daily routines and commitments in order for the worshiper to be nourished and equipped to go back into everyday life with faith, hope, and love. Because of this long and rich heritage, not all of what we do is intuitive. Welcome to Worship is an 8-week series that will take participants through an introduction to worship framed through the themes of Acts 2:42. These sessions will be in person, with an option to attend by Zoom. Registration is required.

Baptism as the Grounding of Faith and Renewal

10-11 A.M., SUNDAYS, REYNOLDS HALL - BEGINS SEPT. 8

This four-week series, lead by Dean Katz, will introduce the sacrament of Baptism as the grounding of our life in faith. Week by week we'll explore how our baptism empowers to be agents of renewal, not just for ourselves or for our church, but also for our families, workplaces, and the world at large.

The Dean's Hour is held on Sundays during the 10 o'clock hour, in Reynolds Hall. Cathedral clergy, other parish leaders, and guest speakers address matters of faith, church life, and community. Learn more or watch the livestream www.christchurchcathedral.org/deanshour

New Communications and Marketing Director

In mid-August, Christ Church was thrilled to welcome Leslie Barrera, to the Cathedral staff. On August 19, Leslie joined us in ministry as the new Communications & Marketing Director. As she reflects on her arrival, "I can't wait to meet each of you and learn how I can help the Cathedral, to best serve you and our community."

LESLIE BARRERA

Leslie comes to CCC after 19 years with the Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston, serving in roles such as Associate Director of Development & Stewardship and Director of Media. She worked in outreach ministry to over 150 churches, 61 ministries, and ran the PR and marketing campaign for the largest private school system in Texas. She brings a lot of gifts with her, including being bilingual in English and Spanish.

"Leslie's dedication to her faith, and the talents that she has built over the years, will add great strength to the Cathedral staff," says Karen Kraycirik, COO. "I am excited to see how the Communications department evolves with her creativity and leadership."

In her free time, she is heavily involved in community theatre, having been a playwright and director for over 15 years in the Houston theatre scene and national festival stages, as well as advocating for inclusive and representative theatre. Welcome, Leslie!

2025 Every Member Canvass Kickoff

As a new fall program year begins, that also means the return of the Every Member Canvass (EMC)—the Cathedral's annual pledge drive to support the church's operating budget for the year ahead.

You're invited to the annual EMC Kickoff Dinner & Skit on Sunday, September 22 at 6 p.m. in Reynolds Hall. This is a must attend event of the season with plenty of food and entertainment. This year's skit, titled Shield of Dreams will have us "root, root, rooting" for a successful campaign to support the work of the parish! This year, we're excited to announce the addition of a celebration on Sunday, November 10! At each service we'll host an "Ingathering" to acknowledge with thanksgiving the pledges we've received. In the afternoon, we'll gather in Reynolds Hall to celebrate Loyalty Sunday with food, fun, and fellowship.

EMC KICKOFF DINNER
September 22, 6 p.m.

Tickets to the dinner on Sept. 22 are $20 for adults, $10 for kids (12 & under). Seats are limited so reserve your ticket early! Childcare will be available, and the event will be livestreamed on the Cathedral's website. Learn more and reserve your ticket at www.christchurchcathedral.org/emcdinner

WEEKDAY WORSHIP, from cover

Beginning Monday, September 9, please join us for Noonday Prayer in Golding Chapel, Monday through Friday, at 12:05 p.m. The service should last about 15 minutes. These added services will be officiated on a rotational basis by clergy, staff, and lay volunteers. It is our sincere hope that adding a third opportunity for daily weekday prayer will enrich our community's spiritual life, foster more moments of fellowship, and better serve our neighbors in downtown Houston as well.

WEEKDAY EUCHARIST

Wednesday, 5:05 p.m.

In order to keep midday worship consistent throughout the week, we will shift our regular Wednesday service of Holy Eucharist to the evening beginning the same week of September. The first Wednesday evening Eucharist will be held on September 11, at 5:05 p.m., and each Wednesday following. Wednesday evening Eucharist will also be in Golding Chapel.

The Daily Office can be officiated by a member of clergy or a lay person and can be done almost anywhere. If you aren't able to join one of our weekday Daily Office in-person or Zoom options, know that you can still add it to your own spiritual practice wherever you may be—as God is always with you. Celebrating Mike Puccio!

Come to the Table has become a much-anticipated annual event thanks to the myriads of supporters and local culinary celebrities who rally around the mission of The Beacon. This year will be no exception as they celebrate Mike Puccio and his many contributions to the organization.

Before The Beacon even opened in 2007, Mike stepped up to get the Day Center equipped and running by leaning on his considerable knowledge in dining and hospitality. Mike wanted to ensure that each of the men and women who came to The Beacon had a great experience—from the food quality to the level of service provided. And what a success it has been!

As The Beacon has grown and evolved, so has Mike's role as he has taken on more responsibilities, and always with a servant's heart. After 18 years, Mike will retire in early 2025 to enjoy the next phase of life.

Along with the stellar line-up of local chefs, Mike once again will be coordinating this year's fabulous four-course meal from The Beacon's kitchen on Thursday, September 19, 2024. Cece and Mack Fowler along with Catherine and Bruce McDonald are co-chairing this momentous event to celebrate Mike and give him a very special Come to the Table send off!

This wildly popular culinary event raises much-needed support for The Beacon's mission of providing essential and next-step services to restore hope and help end homelessness in Houston. For more information or to purchase tickets, visit beaconhomeless.org/come-to-the-table.

Pastoral Care Basics for an urgent situation

Do you have the emergency pastoral care phone number saved in your phone?

713-826-5332 is a great number to have at your fingertips if you urgently need to talk to clergy after business hours, on the weekends, or on holidays. Outside of business hours, please leave a message on the on-call line, and a clergy person will respond quickly.

During business hours, you can call the Cathedral at 713-222-2593 and make sure to say you have "an urgent pastoral care need," so staff from the Pastoral Care Team can be notified as swiftly as possible.

When should I call?

Urgent Pastoral Care support is available in the event that someone is hospitalized, dying or has died, or otherwise needs the spiritual support of a priest urgently. This support might look like prayers over the phone or a visit to the hospital or bedside.

Who will I talk to?

The Cathedral uses a team approach to Pastoral Care. Clergy rotate hospital visitation days as well as weeks as the "On-Call Clergy" role. During business hours, pastoral care calls usually go through Claire Soard, Minister for Pastoral Care, or available clergy. Many acute situations span days or weeks. Cathedral Pastoral Care Staff work together to pray and care for acute situations as well as more chronic and long-term needs.

What if it isn't an emergency, but I need support?

You don't have to wait until a situation is an emergency to reach out to Pastoral Care Staff. We want to walk with you in the hard places of life.

There are several ways to let us know that you could use pastoral care support.

- Prayer Request — Fill out a paper or online prayer request and click the "I would like a call from pastoral care staff" box. (Hint: If you fill out a card and don't hear from us, please call! Sometime cards are lost, although we do our best to keep track of each one.) For the online prayer request form visit: www.christchurchcathedral.org/prayer.

You don't have to wait until a situation is an emergency to reach out to Pastoral Care Staff. We want to walk with you in the hard places of life.

- Call (or email) and ask for clergy or Claire — Let us know you could use prayer or a conversation or visit.

We want to be a place of support. Your pain, uncertainty, or challenges matter to God and they matter to us. We may need to schedule a time in the near future, but it truly is an honor to walk in the hard places with you. Remember Sundays are detail-filled days for clergy—send an email or call (rather than mentioning verbally) if you need to share a particular need or detail.

- Check out Resources — to find support such as Caregiver Support groups, Lay Eucharistic Visits, Grief support, etc .., look under the "Care" tab on the website or call Claire Soard at 713-590-3319 for information on community and Cathedral resources.

And a final note — Connect with other Members — Pastoral care isn't limited to clergy or staff. Showing up for each other and sharing our burdens are part of every Christian's calling as part of the Body of Christ. Check on others and ask for prayer or a listening ear when you need it!

For a full list of Pastoral Care offerings, visit www.christchurchcathedral.org/care
